with BBC Controller of Drama Commissioning BEN STEPHENSON

MONDAY 13 MAY 2013
BAFTA, 195 PICCADILLY, LONDON W1J 9LN

The BAFTA Rocliffe New Writing Forum, now in its fourteenth year, is a platform for new writing and a networking event. Three script extracts of between eight and ten minutes are selected by an industry panel from an open call out. This year the forums focus on TV Drama, Sitcom/Sketches and Film.

BEN STEPHENSON was appointed Controller of Drama Commissioning in September 2008. He is responsible for the re-emergence of drama on BBC Two with a range of truly original pieces including The Shadow Line, United, Eric and Ernie, The Crimson Petal and the White, The Hollow Crown, Parade's End and Line of Duty. Other recent commissions include The Accused, Call The Midwife, Last Tango in Halifax, Luther, Murder, The Paradise, The Secret of Crickleley Hall, Sherlock. Forthcoming dramas include Dancing on the Edge, The Fall, Frankie, Loving Miss Hatto, Mayday, Mary and Martha, Peaky Blinders, Restless, Ripper Street, Top Of The Lake, The Village and War Of The Roses. Ben joined the BBC in 2004 as Head of Development, Independent Drama, and subsequently became Head of Drama Commissioning. He studied Drama at Manchester University before spending three years at Granada Television where he was script editor on a variety of dramas including Heartbeat, London's Burning and Blood Strangers. Ben then worked at Channel 4 where he was Editor, Series for over two years working on dramas such as No Angels, Teachers and Buried. Before joining the BBC he worked as a development producer at Shed Productions and Tiger Aspect.

Inconceivable

Crows' Feet

In 2009 AISLING CORRISTINE won a screenwriting scholarship to UCLA and wrote The Colony. Her latest script, The Prairie Boys, was named as a finalist in the Gimme Credit 2012 Screenwriting Competition.

ROMILLY MASTERS has written five feature scripts and several shorts; Inconceivable is her first TV drama. In 2012 she directed three of her short films, all currently on the Festival circuit.

After NATALIE MALLA's Paid (co-written with Xara Higgs) was optioned by The Comedy Unit, she took part in the Channel 4 Drama Scriptwriting Course. Her short film Killing Thyme, produced by Capture, is shooting in 2013. Natalie is currently studying screenwriting at The Central Film School.
